POLICY TITLE: Program Fee Charges for Avocational Courses

Primary Administrator: Vice President for Infrastructure Services

Location of Related Procedures: Office of Vice President for Infrastructure Services
Office of Director of Finance
Office of Executive Dean for Outreach Learning

Program fees for Avocational courses shall be established annually.

Persons 62 years of age or older, at the time the course begins, are charged a program fee at a rate lower than other registrants for Avocational courses. This fee is set annually as a percentage of the fee paid by all other registrants.

In accordance with Wisconsin Statute 38.24.1, all students shall pay material fees.
